

COPA FLIGHT 177 & Jeremy Mason Memorial, 2018 Youth Flying Scholarship Application Criteria

OBJECTIVES

- To provide assistance to a worthy young person towards the cost of attaining a Recreational or Private Pilot Licence.
- To promote interest in general aviation locally
- To increase exposure of COPA Flight 177 and encourage membership.
- To honour the memory of Jeremy Mason and his love of flying.

THE SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship is valued at $2400 and is provided by COPA Flight 177 & the Jeremy Mason Memorial Fund. The Scholarship is awarded by means of a payment to a local flight training centre, mutually agreed upon by the Scholarship Committee and the successful Applicant. Included in the Scholarship will be a one year regular membership for COPA Flight 177 valued at $25.

Eligible Expenses Include:

- Ground school tuition to a maximum of $200.
- Instructor time and aircraft rental.
- Purchase of aviation fuel if the training aircraft is provided by the student

Payment of Expenses:

The flight training centre will use the funds to pay the student's eligible expenses when the following milestones have been reached.

- Upon successful completion of the ground school course
- One hour of flight training with an instructor upon completion of the 1st training flight
- One hour of flight training with an Instructor upon completion of the 5th hour of flight training, and every 5th hour thereafter, up to and including the 40th hour of flight training, or until the scholarship funds are exhausted.

Duration of Scholarship:

The scholarship is valid for 3 years from the date the scholarship is awarded. COPA Flight 177 reserves the right to reclaim the remaining funds after the three year anniversary date so funds may be applied to another scholarship. The successful Applicant may request an extension of the time by contacting the program chair, but the decision to extend is at the discretion of the committee.
